Supporting Families with Autistic Children
Endowment Fund

The Supporting Families with Autistic Children Endowment Fund (SFWAC) provides up to $500 in support per application. Funding decisions will be made by March 1 each year by a team at the Child Development Centre of Prince George and District (CDC). Children do not need to be associated with the CDC to qualify.

Application deadline: February 15

Eligibility:

- Families of children with autism or suspected autism, that are under 19 years of age, and living in Northern BC.

Eligible Requests:

- Tuition/fees for camps, recreation events or sporting events.
- Specialized sports/recreation equipment
- Sensory equipment including but not limited to weighted vests, weighted animals, compression clothing, vibration equipment, pressure sheets, etc.
- Communication equipment including but not limited to iPads and apps.
- Private autism assessment/diagnosis costs
- Treatment costs for extra therapy, if needed.

Ineligible Requests:

- Expenses or purchases that predate the application's approval.
- Children are only eligible for one successful application every two years.
- Applications from families that have not complied with past SFWAC funding requirements

Funding Process:

- Once a family is approved they will be able to purchase and submit receipts or provide invoices for the fund to pay directly.
- Approved funds must be used by September in the year the funds were approved.

History of Fund

This grant is made possible through the Supporting Families with Autistic Children Endowment Fund, established by the Bassermann Family with the Prince George Community Foundation. The annual income generated by this fund will sustain this grand program every year.

Funds are limited so successful families will be contacted by March 15th of each year.
